

FALL CONFERENCE CHAIRMAN'S INSTRUCTIONS

Article I – General Information

1. You are to appoint no more than three (3) Fall Conference Instructors with the approval of the Department President. You may choose to be an Instructor, if you desire.
2. You are required to attend only the Fall SEC and pre-Convention SEC meetings and will receive mileage for these meetings only.

Article II – Finance

1. You are to let the Department Executive Secretary know by July 15 if you want her to make your hotel reservation. After this date, you will be responsible to make the reservation. There is a budget amount for your room for two (2) nights and the Department Treasurer will pay the hotel directly not to exceed the budget amount. Any extra charges are your responsibility. There is also a budget amount for your banquet ticket and your spouse's, if in attendance. There is no other compensation.
  - a The registration fees for you and your Instructors are waived.
2. Turn in all funds on Friday and Saturday to the Department Executive Secretary and obtain a receipt for same. Make out a complete financial report along with a copy of the registration list and send it to the Department President and Department Executive Secretary within fifteen (15) days after the Fall Conference.
3. When making out your financial report, you do not show any room charges. These are budgeted amounts.

Article III – Meeting Rooms, Requirements, Agenda

1. As soon as possible following your appointment, contact the AMVETS Executive Director to let her know you are the Fall Conference Chairman and obtain any information she may have. If you are asked to make a site visit, you will receive mileage if you travel fifty (50) miles or further. As soon as you have a reservation code, address, phone number, room rate, etc., put a notice in the Auxiliary newsletter and send the information to the Department President, for approval, and the Department Webmaster to be posted on the Auxiliary website.
2. Ask the Department President if she has specific areas she wants covered during the Fall Conference. If she doesn't have anything specific, decide what you want covered and advise your Instructors what classes they are to be in charge of and how long they will have for their class. Ask if they will need any visual aids in the meeting room. If they do, check with the contact person at the hotel about cost of the items and check the budget to see if this is will be covered in the amount budgeted for the meeting room(s).

3. You are responsible to prepare the agenda for the classes, etc. for Fall Conference.
4. Be prepared to give a short welcome and to introduce the Department President at the Joint Opening session.
5. Check the meeting room(s) on Saturday morning to make sure they have been set up as instructed.
6. Ask the Ways & Means Chairman what time she wants her tables to be available Saturday morning. Advise her you will be reserving three (3) tables for her.
7. Contact the Gavelier's President to see if they are having a luncheon and if so, send her the information she needs to make the arrangements for this.
8. If you are not asked to make a site visit, send the AMVET Executive Director a list of your requirements and your agenda. Advise him/her to send you the meeting room assignments and written confirmation on everything.
9. Compose a "Welcome" letter and forward to the Department Executive Secretary along with your agenda no later than twenty-one (21) days prior to Fall Conference.
10. Advise the Instructors they are to forward any materials they would like to have copied for their class(es) to the Department Secretary no later than twenty-one (21) days prior to Fall Conference. If they miss this deadline, they are responsible to get them copied at their own expense.
