

ROSE SOLAK, HONORS & AWARDS CHAIRMAN
AMVETS Ladies Auxiliary Department of Michigan
Honors & Awards Bulletin – April, 2023

All Service Officers are required to attend the Honors & Awards Committee meeting prior to Convention. If you do not attend, you will not receive mileage and per diem if budgeted.

Service Officers bring all Mid Years and Final Reports to the Honors & Awards committee meeting, schedule prior to the SEC meeting. Final Report must be postmarked by May 5th and staple the envelope to the report. You must notify the Local Auxiliary Officer if the report is late. You must notify the Local Auxiliary Officer by letter explaining in detail any errors you found.

Final corrections will be in letter form made out by the Department Officers and passed out to the Local Auxiliary Representative on the Convention floor, after the awards presentations. If the Local Auxiliary Representative is not present at Convention, the letter is to be forwarded by mail.

Service Officers shall send one copy of the Final Report postmarked by May 20th to the NEC Woman.

Be prepared to discuss, the top five (5) Final Reports in each category. Separate the reports in two categories of (10-40) members and 41 members and over. The Local Auxiliary must follow the Donors Rules to be eligible for any Department Service Award.
