

AMVETS Ladies Auxiliary Department of Michigan
LOCAL SGT-AT-ARMS INSTRUCTIONS
2023-2024

#1 The Sgt-At-Arms is the custodian of the colors. She is responsible for transporting them to all meetings and ceremonies where they are required.

#2 The Sergeant-At-Arms shall:

- A. Post the colors at every meeting.
- B. Lead the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag.
- C. See that the meeting room is in order with tables and/or chairs for all members and guests.
- D. Be the keeper of the door during meetings and deliver messages.
- E. Escort guests to the rostrum and introduce new members to the membership.
- F. Distribute and collect the ballots during elections. Give ballots to the Board of Tellers.
- G. Maintain order during meetings.
- H. Promote respect for the Flag at all times.
- I. Have a good knowledge of flag etiquette, AMVETS Auxiliary ceremonies and the correct way to wear the AMVETS Ladies Auxiliary Official Uniform.

#3 Wear the AMVETS Ladies Auxiliary Official Uniform when participating in ceremonies and carrying out her duties at meetings. #4 Procedures for Escorting Distinguished Guests

- A. The Sgt.-At-Arms is on the right side of the person she is escorting or assisting.
- B. With a female guest, the Sgt.-At-Arms offers her left arm and escorts her to the rostrum.
- C. With a male guest, the Sgt.-At-Arms places her left hand under his right elbow and assists him to the rostrum.

#5 Procedure for Posting the Colors (Small Flags)

- A. On the command of the President to “Post Colors“, the Sgt- atArms comes forward with the flag set in both hands.
- B. She places the stand in front of the President with the American Flag on the President’s right.
- C. The Sgt-At-Arms steps back, salutes the flag, says “Auxiliary, Hand Salute” and then leads the Pledge of Allegiance.
- D. With permission of the President and the body, the Sgt-a-Arms may place the flags in front of the President’s seat before the start of the meeting. She will lead the Pledge on command of the President.

#6 Procedure for Retiring the Colors (Small Flags)

- A. On command of the President to “Retire the Colors“, the Sgt-AtArms comes forward, steps one step back from the flags.
- B. She then salutes the colors and says, “Auxiliary Hand Salute”.
- C. She then takes the flags and stand in both hands and walks to the back of the room.

D. If the flags are placed in front before the start of the meeting, the Sgt.AtArms may stay in her place, salute the Colors and say, "Auxiliary, Hand salute" – "Two".

#7 Teach your Auxiliary the proper way of saluting the Colors:

- A. 'Hand Salute' 6-10 paces before the American Flag reaches you
- B. Drop your hand 6-10 paces after the American Flag passes you
- C. 'Hand Salute' upon command
- D. Drop your hand upon the "Two" command.
- E. Your hand is placed flat over your heart - fingers together and thumb pointing up.
- F. Your right elbow is at a comfortable right angle to your body - not down by your side or sticking out like a weapon.

| |
|--|
| No change by 2022-2023 Department Officer |
|--|